International & Public Affairs Cluster Postgraduate offerings 2014

The International and Public Affairs (IPA) cluster is a collection of cognate disciplines in the School of Social Sciences with an emphasis on areas such as politics, policy, governance and conflict resolution. We strive to equip our students with the theoretical and practical knowledge required to produce marketable and effective graduates for the workplace.

As well as a thriving undergraduate programme, the IPA cluster offers Honours, Masters and PhD degrees in a number of subject areas. The cluster invites applications from suitably qualified candidates to apply for postgraduate studies in the following programmes:

- Political Science
- Public Policy
- Government, Business and Ethics
- Conflict Transformation and Peace Studies
- Policy and Development Studies
- Politics, Philosophy and Economics
- International Relations

Students undertaking full-time research masters studies or research doctoral studies will receive 100% remission of fees.

For more information regarding the programmes and application procedures visit the School website: <http://sss.ukzn.ac.za> or email socialsciences@ukzn.ac.za
